

Faculty Meeting

Tuesday, February 18, 2014

Present

Faculty: Randall Engle, Chris Hertzog, Rustin Meyer, Scott Moffat, Jim Roberts, Wendy Rogers, Jenny Singleton, Eric Schumacher, Dan Spieler, Paul Verhaeghen, Bruce Walker

Graduate Student Area Reps: Matthew Barrett, Patrick Bradshaw, Victor Ellingsen, Jonathan Schuett

Administrative: Dawn Franklin, Jan Westbrook

Note: Meeting facilitated by Paul Verhaeghen as Dr. Weiss was on business travel

- I. Announcements (Paul Verhaeghen):
 - a. Dr. Weiss would like to make sure everyone is aware that hiring Jordan Poppenk would not impact the School's ability to move forward with the other open slots
 - b. The faculty were reminded of the challenge to develop ideas for the other two open slots
 - c. Update on Rick Thomas:
 - i. Everyone up in the chain is in agreement on the offer
 - ii. The package was delayed getting up to the Provost's office as a result of the campus closings due to inclement weather and because it required a tenure decision
 - iii. The final approval should come back any day now.
- II. CogNeuro Faculty Search (Paul Verhaeghen)
 - a. Faculty discussed feedback from the talks given by the CogNeuro faculty candidates.
 1. Now that all of the talks have been given, the faculty recommended that the CogNeuro Search Committee members meet and re-review the materials of each of the finalists
- III. School Colloquiums (Rustin Meyer)
 - a. Rustin Meyer announced that David C. Rubin (Duke University) has agreed to be our Spring School Colloquium Series speaker. Dr. Rubin's Colloquium will take place at 3pm on Wednesday, March 26th. Dr. Rubin will also be available on March 27th for meetings.
